

Skiing and activities for those who want more

Take your colleagues to some of the Nordic region's top ski resorts. This program is ideal for conference and corporate groups looking to combine productive days with shared experiences in the Arctic mountains.

Over four days, skiing in Riksgränsen and Narvik is combined with relaxation, group dinners, and activities that strengthen the group's bond. After the day's activities, enjoy the spa or sauna before rounding off the evening with dinner in a mountain setting.

The program concludes with an extraordinary adventure. Choose between a snowmobile safari or a dog sled ride before the group gathers for a mountain lunch and dinner over an open fire. The night is spent outdoors together with experienced guides—an experience that brings the trip to a memorable close.
